

StudentNet 3.05.07 Meeting Notes

PACT | Melanie Little from PACT came and shared with us about their resources and some opportunities that our student ministries might want to get involved in. April 28 PACT is having a Family Fun Day @ Rhodes Ferry Park from 10am to 4pm. They're needing groups/people to help with face painting, cotton candy and snow cone machines. Also, they will have a stage there and are interested in groups coming and singing, doing drama, puppet shows, etc. You can contact Melanie Little if your interested in getting involved. Their website is www.pactfamily.org

Freedom Experience | Ryan Melson from Vertical Ministries came to share with us about the possibility of doing a Freedom Experience Tour here in our area. You can check this out at www.freedomexperience.com. This is huge evangelistic outreach event. We're planning on doing this in the fall (probably October) of 2008.

DNOW 2008 | The focus this year will be to challenge and encourage students in the area of personal Bible study. Some possible names: "Vintage" (meaning we're going back to what DiscipleNow was started for, discipleship); "Retro"; "Taste". We set the date for Feb 1-3. Next meeting Gabe and Kevin will be bringing some curriculum for possible weekend material. You can check out StudentLife's How To Study Bible material and see what you think.

College-prep Day | We talked about the possibility of hosting a college-prep day for high school juniors and seniors sometime this fall. We'll invite colleges to come and provide school information and have classes on how to look for and get scholarships, how to pick the right school, what college classes are really like, etc.

Run 'N' Gun | This is a flag football tournament May 5 @ Jack Allen Soccer Fields. All students are invited to participate. You can go to www.cbsmonline.org for more info.

Metamorphosis Mission Project | June 11-15. Here in Decatur. StudentNet is picking up a former World Changers project here in Decatur. Our students will have the opportunity to be involved in different service projects like mowing yards, building wheelchair ramps, repairing fences, landscaping, etc. Students will have the option of working all day, in the mornings, or in the afternoons. Wednesday evening there will be a fun day @ Point Mallard with food, a concert, and a pass to the water park for the students participating with Metamorphosis. Adults are needed to supervise and help. Sign up deadline is April 12. Cost is $15. This cost includes lunch, t-shirt, and insurance for each participant. Fred Bueto (FBC Decatur) should be getting out information and registration materials to you soon. You can contact Fred if you're interested or for more info.

Next Meeting will be Monday, April 2, 11:00am @ Southside Baptist.

Don't forget that you can check out the StudentNet site (www.thestudentnet.net) for event info, dates, and contact information.
